

ECOLOGY MITIGATION CALENDAR

PLAN FOR ECOLOGY

Mitigation Not Possible
  Sub-Optimum time to undertake work with Mitigation
  Optimum time to undertake work with Mitigation/ Instruction

	JAN	FEB	MAR	APR	MAY	JUN	JUL	AUG	SEP	OCT	NOV	DEC
 Breeding &amp; Nesting Birds			Habitat clearance under an ECoW (works likely to be delayed between April - July)
 Badgers*					Sett closures or disturbance only under a licence
 Bat Day or Night Roosts*	Under a licence		Under a licence		Under a licence			Under a licence		Under a licence
 Bat Hibernation Roosts*				Works to hibernation roosts under licence
 Bat Maternity Roosts*	Works on maternity roosts under a licence								Works on maternity roosts under a licence
 Dormouse*	Above ground vegetation clearance			Clearance of habitat (vegetation, stump and root) under an ECoW and a licence								Above ground clearance
 Otters*	Mitigation for habitat clearance can be completed year round under an ECoW
 Reptiles*			Translocations, hand searches and destructive searches under an ECoW
 Water voles*	Mitigation can be completed year round under an ECoW
 Great crested newts*	Pond management		Translocations, hand searches and destructive searches under an ECoW							Pond management
 Invasive Non-Native Species	Management Plan or Method Statement for the control and eradication of INNS

*Development licence will be required for this species. ECoW is an Ecological Clerk of Works where a precautionary approach to the works is carried out under the supervision of a Plan for Ecology Ltd Ecologist. This mitigation calendar does not include habitat features. This calendar is indicative and shall be superseded with any site specific information or Natural England licences.